

The John Pancott Heart of Gold Award

The Pink Invitational and Unite for HER are pleased to announce the creation of a gymnastics coaching award in honor of John Pancott. This distinction will be awarded to a coach who loves to teach any child who wants to learn, regardless of their skill level. A coach who instills a sense of pride and accomplishment in the gymnast. A coach who motivates through positive and constructive correction, and doesn't ridicule or shame. A coach that lives to teach. These are the leadership qualities John Pancott embodied during his career and that nominated coaches should exemplify as well. If you know a coach you feel should be considered, please read through the award criteria below for more details. We are humbled by the impact John Pancott had on the gymnastics community. Through this award, we hope to honor coaches who demonstrate these values and share his love of the sport.
